D. The Board Directors consisting of the Mayors and the County Judge/Executives shall jointly nominate their county’s citizen member. At the Annual Meeting the Board Directors, by majority vote, shall seat the chosen citizen members and the at large member.

E. State Legislators serving the Area not appointed to the Board of Directors as a Citizen Member may serve as Ex-Officio members without the right to vote or hold office on the Board.

F. The President of Morehead State University if not appointed to the Board of Directors as a Citizen Member may serve as an Ex-Officio member without the right to vote or hold office on the Board.

Section 2: Geographic Distribution of Directors

Each county shall have a least two (2) public officials and one (1) citizen member on the ADD Board. The at-large citizen Member represents the entire region.
Section 3: Term of Office

In the case of public officials - Mayor and County Judge/Executives - the terms of office as Directors on the ADD Board shall coincide with their elective term of office. Ex-Officio members shall also serve during the tenure of their public office.

Citizen Directors shall serve terms of one (1) year to expire at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 4: Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall regulate and supervise the management and operation of the ADD. It shall attend to arrangements for carrying on the operation in a businesslike manner. The Board of Directors shall have the responsibility of developing policies under which the ADD shall function. All policies accepted by the Board of Directors shall be prepared in written form and communicated to the ADD membership.

The Board of Directors hereby delegates broad powers to the Executive Committee for the management and operation of the ADD, including but not limited to, all of the duties and powers set forth in KRS 147A.070 – KRS 147A.090, the power to delegate all powers and authority to the Executive Director which the Executive Committee deems necessary or appropriate for the operations of the day-to-day affairs, the power and authority to enter into contracts and the power and authority to delegate authority to Officers or the Executive Director.

Section 5: Removal of Directors

Any board member may be removed at any time, for cause, by a majority vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Board of Directors who have attended the meeting at which the decision to remove the Board member is properly on the agenda for consideration. The Board member must be provided with notice at least thirty (30) days in advance of such action. Notification must specify cause and date, time, and place of pending action and must be delivered by registered mail. Removal may be initiated by any Board member. Cause for removal is deemed to include:

A. Direct conflict of interest;

B. Violation of law applicable to this organization; or

C. Conduct unbecoming a Board member of this organization or prejudicial to its purpose in Article I, Section 3, hereinabove.

Section 6: Filling of Vacancies

Any vacancy of a Mayor or Judge/Executive designee shall be filled by appointment of the relevant Judge/Executive or Mayor. If the Director is a Judge/Executive or Mayor, his/her legally appointed or elected successor shall replace him/her on the Board. In the event that less than one hundred twenty (120) days remain in the term of office vacated, the remaining term may be left vacant.
ARTICLE III
BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Section 1: Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Board shall be conducted once a year in June, unless otherwise determined at a date, time, and place designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2: Regular Meetings

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be scheduled and such meetings shall be held on the last Tuesday of the month at a date, time, and place in the District as prescribed by the notice of said meeting, with the Annual Meeting counting as one of these regular meetings, unless otherwise designated by the Board of Directors.

At all properly called Board meetings, a simple majority of all Directors, including one officer present, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum to transact business, but any lesser number shall be sufficient to adjourn a meeting. If a vacancy occurs for any reason, the remaining Directors shall be the basis for determining a quorum. The Board of Directors can determine the frequency of the meetings by majority vote.

Section 3: Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held on the call of the Chair of the Board, Executive Director, or any remaining fifteen (15) members of the Board. The time, place, date, and purpose of said Special Meetings shall be as designated by the notice of said meeting and said notice shall be given by e-mail a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting.

Section 4: Notice Requirement

Notice of the Annual Meeting and other Regular Meetings shall be mailed or e-mailed to each Director not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting. This notice shall be sent by the Board Chair, Secretary, or staff to the address or e-mail appearing on the Official Register and said act shall be deemed as compliance with the notice requirement.

Section 5: Attendance Requirement

Any Director missing three (3) consecutive meetings may be contacted by the Chair of the Board or a person or committee appointed by the Chair and they may determine the reason for his/her absence and his/her intention to continue his/her activities on the Board. A report shall be given to the Board of Directors at their Regular Meeting or Special Meeting at which time the Board may declare a vacancy and, if a vacancy is declared, then the procedure as outlined heretofore in filling vacancies shall be in effect.
ARTICLE IV
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1: Composition of the Executive Committee

The Chair of the Board shall appoint the directors of the Executive Committee with the approval of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall have full power of the Board of Directors and shall carryout the policies of the Board of Directors and direct the activities of the Executive Director and the staff of the ADD. The Executive Committee shall be composed as follows:

A. The Officers of the Board of Directors, which constitute six (6) of the sixteen (16) directors of the full board, shall serve as Officers of the Executive Committee.

B. The Executive Committee shall be composed in its entirety of elected officials.

C. A quorum of the Executive Committee shall consist of four (4) directors, including at least one (1) Officer, to transact business, but a lesser number shall be sufficient to adjourn a meeting.

Section 2: Responsibilities of the Executive Committee

The purpose of the Executive Committee is to provide the Board of Directors with orderly management of the business affairs of the ADD. It shall be within the Executive Committee’s authority and power to oversee and/or conduct the normal and recurring business of the Board.

Items requiring prior approval of the Executive Committee shall include, but are not limited to, the execution of personal service contracts; execution of contracts which will bind the ADD for the purchase or sale of personal property or real property; delegation of powers, duties, and authority to the Executive Director and Officers; and payment of: customary payroll related and business expenses.

The Executive Committee shall furnish the Board of Directors a quarterly and annual financial statement and they shall see that the Annual Audit or other audits are completed as required by these By-laws and/or Board directive.

The Executive Committee shall have other powers and duties as may be specified by the Board of Directors.

Section 3: Regular Meetings

Meetings of the Executive Committee shall be scheduled as needed at such date, time, and place in the District as prescribed by the notice of said meetings.
Section 4: Special Meetings

Special Meetings of the Executive Committee will be held on the call of the Chair, the Executive Director, or any remaining five (5) directors of the Executive Committee. The time, place, date, and purpose of said Special Meeting shall be as designated by the notice of said meeting and said notice shall be given by a minimum of e-mail notification twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting, or may be provided by email or other direct electronic communication provided the Executive Committee member who has provided an e-mail address or other electronic address to the ADD.

Section 5: Notice Requirement for Change of Date of Regular Meeting

Notice of Change of Time or Date of an Executive Committee Meeting shall be mailed or e-mailed to each Director not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting.

Section 6: Electronic Approval

The Executive Committee may utilize electronic approval for time-sensitive matters that require action by the Chair or the Executive Director. Action may be taken by the Chair or the Executive Director without a meeting if a majority of the members of the Committee, as the case may be, consent thereto by electronic transmission. Any electronic approval shall be ratified at the next meeting of the Executive Committee and recorded in the minutes.

ARTICLE V
OFFICERS

Section 1: Officers of the Board

The Officers of the Board of Directors shall be a Chair of the Board, 1st Vice-Chair of the Board, 2nd Vice-Chair of the Board, Secretary, Treasurer, Immediate Past Chair of the Board, and such other officers as the Board of Directors may deem advisable. Officers of the Board shall also serve as Officers of the Executive Committee. The Officers may serve as members of the Functional Advisory Committees.

Section 2: Election of Officers and Term of Office

The Officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors at their Annual meeting and they shall hold office for one (1) year or until their successors have been elected and qualified; however, if the Board of Directors shall decide to name another officer in accordance with its privileges outlined heretofore in the By-Laws, the Board of Directors may provide when and for what term he/she shall be elected. In the event of a vacancy occurring during the period for which an officer has been elected, the Board shall fill such a vacancy at the next Regular Meeting or sooner at a Special Meeting of the Board of Directors. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board may succeed themselves in office, not to exceed more than two (2) successive terms.
Section 3: Removal of an Officer

An Officer may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance, or conflict of interest at any time by the majority vote of the entire directorship of the Board of Directors provided that written charges are submitted to him/her within thirty (30) days prior to such action and they be given a chance to plead their case. The person so removed shall have a right of appeal to the Circuit Court.

Section 4: Eligibility of Officers

Any Elected Official of the Board shall be eligible to hold office.

Section 5: Expenses

Payment of expenses of the Officers and of the Directors shall be determined and subject to authorization by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VI
DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS

Section 1: Chair of the Board

The Chair shall be the chief executive of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. He/she shall preside at all meetings of the Directors. He/she shall have general and active management of the business of the Board and shall see that all order, policies, and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect. He/she shall also perform other duties as may from time to time be delegated to him/her by the Board.

Section 2: 1st Vice-Chair of the Board

The 1st Vice-Chair shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee in the event of the Chair's absence, or inability to perform his/her duties. He/she shall also perform duties as may from time to time be delegated to him/her by the Chair of the Board.

Section 3: 2nd Vice-Chair of the Board

The 2nd Vice-Chair shall preside at meetings of the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee in the event of the Chair's and 1st Vice-Chair's absence, or inability to perform their duties. He/she shall also perform duties as may from time to time be delegated to him/her by the Chair of the Board.

Section 4: Secretary of the Board

The Secretary shall keep the records of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee, the minutes of the meetings of the Board, and the Official Register of the membership, the Board of Directors, and the Executive Committee. The Secretary shall notify officers, committees, and delegates of their elections and appointments. He/she shall present the minutes of each business session. The Secretary may delegate any and all of these duties to a member of the staff if he/she so desires; however, such delegation does not relieve the Secretary of his/her responsibilities. He/she shall also perform duties as may from time to time be delegated by the Board.

Section 5:  Treasurer of the Board

The Treasurer shall be the custodian of all monies and securities of the ADD and shall provide for the accurate keeping of regular books of account of ADD funds and properties. The Treasurer may delegate any and all of these duties to a member of the staff if he/she so desires; however, such delegation does not relieve the Treasurer of his/her responsibilities. He/She shall also perform duties as may from time to time be delegated to him/her by the Board.

Section 6:  Immediate Past Chair of the Board

The Immediate Past Chair shall serve as an officer of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee. The Immediate Past Chair adds continuity to the Board, especially during transition to the new Chair by providing guidance and a historical perspective of the Board of Directors’ activities. He/She shall also perform duties as may from time to time be delegated to him/her by the Board.

Section 7:  Administrative Officers and Staff

The Executive Committee may employ personnel and contract with other persons as it deems necessary to carry out the goals, objectives, programs, and duties assigned to it by virtue of these By-Laws, Charter, and the Laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The Chief Executive Officer shall be the Executive Director who shall be appointed by the Board to administer, direct, implement, and otherwise carry out the functions and duties of this organization. The Executive Director will implement the policies and programs of the Board and shall recommend to the Board on such matters as budget, staff policies and appointments, programs, contracts, studies, organization, and other such matters of direct concern to the Board. The Executive Director shall also serve as an ex-officio member of all functional advisory committees of the Board.

All administrative and/or professional level employees of the Board as well as paraprofessionals and support employees shall be under the direct supervision of and responsible to the Executive Director. The Executive Director shall adopt work rules and policies to govern the staff operations and functions.
